goods, monies, real estate &c.

I may owe at date of my death, viz:
7th I desire that such funeral arrangements as shall be made for me shall be simple plain and not extravagant in any way, much preferring that the living have all except what is necessary to put my body where it will be of no offense to anyone.

2^d Not wishing to wrong anyone out of any thing it is my special request that every cent that I justly and legally owe including doctor bills and funeral expenses be paid in full and should I die having not enough money and property to do this I pray that my children and grandchildren see to it personally that this is done.

Huffman, they are to be taken and are part of my estate and to be so considered in settlement and distribution of my estate. Sixth. Fully relying on the good judgment of my said wife and the love and affection she has for our said children, I hereby make and appoint her as my Executrix without bond to carry out the provisions of this my last will and testament and pray the Court to appoint her as guardian with out bond of my minor heir (Louis C.
