J. A. Woods
Last Will and Testament

Know all men by these presents, that I, J.A. Woods of Osage Township in the county of Benton and state of Arkansas, being in ill health, but of sound and disposing mind memory, do make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wiels by me at any time heretofore made.

I hereby constitute and appoint Dwight Dickson to be the sole executor of my last will.

In case Dwight Dickson fails to undertake the duties as executor under this will, I hereby constitute and appoint E.H. Fair to be the sole executor of my last will; and should Dwight Dickson assume the duties of executor and for any reason whatever be unable to continue the work as such, I hereby constitute and appoint E.H. Fair as his successor with full power as executor as if he had been named as executor first.

I will and direct that out of my estate all my just debts and funeral expenses be fully paid as soon after my death as practicable.

After the payment of all my debts and funeral expenses, I will, give, devise, and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Mary Woods, all my property and estate that I may own at the time of my death including the real and personal property of every kind, name and description, to have and to hold the same to her sole use and benefit so long as she may live, with full power of disposal, to make sale and conveyance to any one purchasing same: and the proceeds thereof are to be used and applied to the uses of my said wife, Mary Woods, during her natural life.

And it is my will at the death of my said wife, Mary Woods, that all the estate owned by me at the time of my death of whatsoever name and description and not disposed of by my said wife in her life time and that may be left, and the property and estate so owned by me at the time of my death and not disposed of by my said wife in her life time—that may be left at her death and not used by her in supplying herself with reasonable necessities and comforts of life, shall go to and become the property of my nephews and neices, namely: Dwight Dickson, John W. Woods, William H. Woods, Margarette E. Woods, James A. Woods, Sarah Black and Belle Kindley, each one-eighth (1/8) of the residue of my estate.

And to the heirs-at-law, the children of John Alvin Dickson, deceased, I give one-eighth (1/8) of my estate which is to be divided equally between them as follows: Jewell Dickson, Eva Boger, Mattie Harris, Gordon Dickson, Shirley Dickson and Gertrude Dickson. That is to say the children of John Alvin Dickson deceased, are each to receive one-forty-eighth (1/48) of my estate.

Should any of the legatee herein named be indebted to my estate at the time of probation of this will, the executor must deduct such sums, or amounts, from the total such person, or persons, would otherwise be entitled to receive.

In testimony whereof, I hereto set my hand and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, in the presence of the witnesses named below, this the 13th day of March, A. D. 1919.

J. A. Woods.

Signed, published and declared by the said I. A. Woods, as and for his last will and testament, in presence of us, who, in his presence and in the presence of each other, and at his request, have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.
