Obit at Funeral Service, March 6, 2010

Dr. Lloyd Clayton Flynt, age 92, of Camden, died March 4, 2010. He was born July 31, 1917 in Lonoke, Arkansas to the late William and Lola Flynt.

He is preceded in death by his parents; wife, Marian; son, Steven William Flynt, sister, Emma Bowie; and three stepbrothers (sic missed one stepsister)

Dr Flynt graduated from Arkansas State Teachers College in 1941 and Baylor Dental College in Dallas, Texas. He joined the Navy in 1941 and became an aviation cadet. In 1944, he boarded the Enterprise in Pearl Harbour with destination to Iwo Jima. On October 15, 1944 he gave air support in the invasion of the Philipines and on October 25, 1944 at the Battle of Leyte Gulf. He was awarded the Navy Cross, the Air Medal and the Presidential (sic - actual is Navy not Pres) Unit Citation for his outstanding work as a pilot of a Navy Helldiver. Upon Completion of dental school in Dallas in 1949, he and Marian moved to Camden. He retired after the death of his wife in 1986. After his retirement from dentistry, he proudly worked for Proctor Funeral Home for over 20 years.

Dr. Flynt loved to work in his shop building duck houses, bird houses, etc to give to his friends and neighbors and continued to play golf twice a week at the young age of 91 years old.

Survivors include his daughter, Jill Flynt Steelman and husband, Sam; two brothers, Alvin and William Flynt; four grandsons, Noel Steelman and wife Kilatha, Gary Steelman and wife, Alicia, Clayton Flynt Steelman and wife, Dr. Lydia, and Christopher Flynt; and several great-grandchildren.

Dr. Flynt's family sends special thanks to the staff at Pine Hills Health and Rehabilitation, Dr. Bill Dedman and his 80 years and older golfing buddies. Memorials may be made to the Frank Broyles Alzheimer's Group.
