Will of Edward Lloyd.

In Chicot Probate Court.

In the Matter of Probate of Will Last Will + Testament of Edward Lloyd.

Comes Edward Lloyd, the executor of the Last Will and Testament of Edward Lloyd, Sr., and presents to the Court a certified copy of the last will and Testament of said Edward Lloyd, Sr., a citizen and resident in his life time, of Eastern, in the State of Maryland, and shows that said Last Will and Testament is such as under the laws of said State of Maryland would pass the title to Real estate situated in such State and as such has been duly admitted to probate in State; and that said Last Will and Testament was executed with such formalities as is required to pass the title to real estate in this State, as is shown by the Certified Copy of said instrument together with the order of probate thereon. Therefore Petitioner prays that an order be made admitting said last Will and Testament to probate as a will affecting real property in this State and to that end that the same be admitted to record.

John C. & Robert H. Connerly
 for Petitioner

John C. Connerly says that he is one of the attorneys for Edward Lloyd who is now absent from Chicot County, Arkansas, and states on oath that he believes the statements of the foregoing petition to be true.

C. L. Mead,

Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chicot County, Ark.

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Edward Lloyd, of Talbot County, in the State of Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

First.

I desire that my funeral may be plain and private and without parade and preaching.

I give devise and bequeath to my son Edward Lloyd, his heirs and assigns, all the lands contained in my former following: including the woodland contiguous to the same, that is to say, My Town Farm, My House Farm, My Corn Farm, New Design Farm, Hopewell Farm, and Blessed Land Farm, on the Choptank River, all being in the County aforesaid; and also my plate, jewels, paintings, books, such furniture and household goods, as shall be in my dwelling house at Myr at the time of my death except such furniture as may belong to the Chamber or Chambers, of my daughters Alecia and Sally, which I give and devise to them respectively.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my son Edward Lloyd, his heirs, executors and administrators, for and during the life of my daughter Elizabeth Key and no longer, my farm called Woolmans, with two hundred acres of woodland, one hundred acres of it to be laid off on the South side of what is known as the White House Acres Woods, next to the new quarter fence, by a line from the Corner of the Wood fence, west of the gate of the New quarter farm going into said woods, near what is called (Cunney trap) and thence to the road on west side of Woods going to White House farm. The other one hundred acres of woodland to be laid off from the three hundred acres bought of my brother J. M. Lloyd's Estate in the Park Woods on the South side, all being in the County aforesaid: and also the sum of Five thousand dollars ($5,000) Current money of Maryland, in special trust and Confidence that he will collect and receive the profits and interest of said lands and money thus devised and bequeathed to him and pay the same over to my daughter Elizabeth Key, for her sole use and benefit, during her natural life, whose receipt in writing shall be a sufficient discharge for the same, to the said Trustee, her co-trustees notwithstanding, and from and after her death I give and bequeath the said land and money before given in trust for the benefit of my said daughter, unto her Child or Children if any, their heirs, Executors, administrators and assigns, equally to be divided between them. Share and share alike subject however to the payment by them of one third of the profits and interest thereof to any husband she may leave behind her, during his natural life, to whom I give the said third during his life.

I give devise and bequeath to my said son Edward Lloyd, his heirs, Executors and administrators for and during the life of my daughter Alicia Winden and no longer my farm called White House together with the balance of the woodland in what is known as the White House Acres Woods, being in the County aforesaid, and also the sum of Eleven thousand dollars ($11,000) Current money of Maryland, in special trust, and Confidence that he shall collect and receive the profits and interest of the said lands and money thus last devised and bequeathed to him and pay the same over to my daughter Alicia for her sole use and benefit, during her natural life whose receipt in writing shall be a sufficient discharge for the same to the said Trustee, though she may be under coverture, and from and after her death I give, devise and bequeath the said land and money, before given in trust for the benefit of my said daughter Alicia unto her Child or Children, if any, their heirs, Executors, administrators and assigns, equally to be divided between them Share and share alike, subject however, to the payment by them of one third of the profits and interest thereof to any husband she may leave behind her, during his natural life, to whom I give the said third during his life.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my son Edward Lloyd his heirs, Executors and administrators for and during the life of my daughter Sally S. Lloyd and no longer, my farm called New Quarter with the balance of the woodland in the Park Woods bought of Estate of my brother J. M. Lloyd being two hundred acres, also my farm called Danvers as bought from W. Johnson, all being in the County aforesaid, and also the sum of Ten thousand dollars ($10,000) Current money of Maryland, in special trust and Confidence that he shall collect and receive the profits and interest of said lands and money, thus devised and bequeathed to him and pay the same over to my daughter Sally S. Lloyd for her sole use and benefit during her natural life, whose receipt in writing shall be a sufficient discharge for the same to the said Trustee, though she may be under Coverture, and from and after her death I give devise and bequeath the said land and money before given in trust for the benefit of my said daughter Sally S. Lloyd unto her Child or Children, if any, their heirs, Executors administrators and assigns, equally to be divided between them, Share and share alike, subject however, to the payment by them of one third of the profits and interest thereof to any husband she may leave behind her, during his life, to whom I give the said third during his life.

If either or any of my said daughters shall die without leaving lawful issue living at her or their death, in that case I give, devise and bequeath unto the surviving husband or husbands of such deceased daughter or daughters, during the natural life or lives of such husband or husbands and no longer, all the property real and personal herein before given to her or their deceased wife or wives respectively, and from and after the death of such husbands respectively, I give, devise and bequeath unto my son Edward Lloyd, his heirs, Executors and administrators for and during the life and lives of my surviving daughter and daughters and no longer, all the property real and personal herein before given to such deceased daughter or daughters, in special trust and Confidence that he my said son, his heirs, Executors and administrators, shall collect and receive the profits and interest of the property herein before given to such deceased daughter or daughters and pay the same over to the surviving daughter or daughters equally, for their sole use and benefit during their natural lives whose receipts in writing shall be a sufficient discharge for the same to the said trustee, though they may be under coverture, and from and after the deaths of such surviving daughters respectively, I give, devise and bequeath all the said last mentioned property, real and personal unto the children of the surviving daughters respectively, their heirs and assigns, to be divided between them, share and share alike, that is to say, the children of each surviving mother to have an equal part, to be divided among them, subject, however, to the payment by them of one third of the profits thereof, to any husband or husbands, that the surviving daughter or daughters may leave behind them during his or their natural lives, to whom I give the said third accordingly.

I give and bequeath to each of my daughters a negro girl, such as each of my said daughters may select, the eldest to have the first choice and so on according to minority.

I will and direct that my interest in the land in Allegany County in the State of Maryland and also my property both real and personal in Madison County in the State of Mississippi be sold by my executor herein after named, at his discretion and be by him conveyed to the person chosen or purchaser and that the proceeds be applied for the payments of my debts and legacies.

After the payments of my debts and legacies all the rest and residue of my estate real and personal, not hereinbefore disposed of, I give, devise and bequeath unto my son Edward Lloyd his heirs, executors and administrators.

I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Edward Lloyd the sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and fixed my seal on this seventeenth day of November in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and fifty, six.

Edw. Lloyd (seal)

Signed sealed published and declared by Edward Lloyd the before named Testator, as and by his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Will of James H. Wilson.

In Chicot Probate Court, April Term 1889.

In the Matter

of Ex-Parte Application of Emeline Carr, formerly, Fanny Wilson
Last Will & Testament of Jas. H. Wilson, deceased.

Your Petitioner, Emeline Carr, wife of Lideon H. Carr, formerly, Fanny Wilson, presents this her petition, and says:

That Jas. H. Wilson has departed this life; that on Monday 30th day of August 1869 there was presented to the County Court of Williamson County, Tennessee, a Court having and exercising jurisdiction over the Probate of Wills, a paper writing purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Jas. H. Wilson, deceased, a citizen and resident of said County of Williamson State of Tennessee, together with four other certain paper writings purporting to be Codicils to said Last Will, dated respectively, February 20th 1866; August 11th 1866; and March 22nd 1868; that said will and said three Codicils thereto, were by the order and judgment of said County Court of said Williamson County, admitted, together, as the said Last Will & Testament of the said James H. Wilson, deceased; that the said will and each Codicil were written in the proper and genuine handwriting of the said Jas. H. Wilson, deceased, as is shown by the Proof of Probate, by the testimony of John B. W. Ewum, Henry H. Cook, and Lewis Cook; that the said Jas. H. Wilson was a non-resident of the State of Arkansas, and that said last will and Testament and the Codicils
